

Dear HSRF Scholar,

Another semester will soon be completed and all of us at the Foundation hope that it has been a good semester for each of you.

Please use this form to update us on your progress, especially your classes, grades, GPA, semester hours earned, and any changes you have made to your plans.

In addition to sending this completed form, remember that your school must also send to the Foundation at the address below:

- 1. A copy of your grades for the semester just completed;*
- 2. A copy of your account showing the posting and allocation of all funds received for your account.*

IMPORTANT: Your completed form HSRF-106 and the two items above must be received by the Foundation before the Foundation will make any further payments under your scholarship to the school on your behalf.

Good luck on your semester finals!!
